

12 Disciples Programme

In accordance with the reconnection pilot programme and the agreement between the Barka Foundation and Hammersmith and Fulham London borough a group of workers from the Barka foundation are going to accompany the EuroMI representatives in their work in London and Dublin. Participants of the Programme are people who had been in a difficult situation and are now managing foundations and setting up self-help groups. They have become leaders who are able to efficiently support work migrants in need, living on the streets of London and Dublin.
